

HAL'S MIRACLE LIFE AFFIRMATIONS FOR 2020

Live My Purpose, Live My Mission, Love ALL People Unconditionally, Be Present & Grateful in Every Moment.

PURPOSE—My life's purpose is to help every person I possibly can, to create and experience everything they want for their life. This begins with my unwavering commitment to create and experience everything I want in my own life, and never settle for less than I can be, do, and have, so that I can learn (through experience) how to help others to do the same.

MISSION—My mission is to elevate the consciousness of humanity, one person and one morning at a time. I do this by sharing The Miracle Morning with people.

FAMILY—My highest priority is to selflessly serve my family, as the best husband and father I can possibly be, loving my wife and children unconditionally, and supporting each of them, every day, to create and live the life of their dreams.

TOP GOALS—For each of these goals, I will apply the Miracle Equation Affirmation formula:

1. Release The Miracle Morning Movie. This film is the next step in my mission and has the potential to impact people in profound ways, showing them how they can literally begin to take control of their life, one morning at a time.
2. Add Value Daily/Weekly to The Miracle Morning Community. (Facebook Group, Podcast, Email List, etc.)
3. Limit My Speeches to 24 Total (2 per month) so I can be home more with my family.

FOCUS—To truly make 2020 my best year ever, the key is FOCUS. I must focus my attention on the goals and projects that I've already committed to and refrain from taking on new goals and projects, as doing so would detract from and be unfair to my current commitments. To maximize productivity, I will schedule 3-5 hour blocks or 1/2-days of singularly focused attention on ONE activity/project, rather than trying to switch tasks every 60 minutes. This is an AOI for me.

INFINITE WISDOM—All things are possible when I actively connect to the Infinite Wisdom available at all times, through the powers of prayer and meditation. Remember, my 'thinking' brain is VERY limited by my physical, mental, & emotional limitations. But when I "actively" connect with God/Source that is when I'm operating from a place of elevated consciousness.

FINANCIAL ABUNDANCE/CONTRIBUTION—My financial objectives in 2020 are for my income to exceed last year, to save/invest 50% of every dollar I earn so I can provide long-term financial security for my family, and I will continue donating a minimum of 10% of my income to charitable causes that I believe in, including those that others as me to contribute to. Remember, the more money I earn, save, and contribute, the greater the impact I can have for others.

HAL'S MIRACLE LIFE AFFIRMATIONS FOR 2020

AUTHENTICITY—Give up being perfect for being authentic. I won't make everyone happy. Some will judge me, criticize me and talk behind my back, while others will praise, honor, respect me, spread good will about me and pray for my continued success. Everyone who truly knows me appreciates me because of the value I give to others. They support me financially, with connections & resources to bring me to my goals. I am grateful for these people. I work for them, and no one else.

THE MIRACLE MORNING + S.A.V.E.R.S.—I will continue living TMM to the fullest every day to be a living example for others and present to the benefits of the SAVERS. TMM is my greatest gift to the world & I must lead by example.

KEYNOTE SPEAKING—It is my responsibility to continue speaking so that more audiences (people) can benefit from TMM.

OVERCOMING FEAR & WORRY—Fear and worry are a misuse of my imagination, so I will only imagine myself accomplishing all that I want and am working towards. Besides, there is nothing to fear, because I cannot fail... only learn, grow, and become better than I've ever been before.

REST & RELAXATION—Taking regularly scheduled periods of R&R are crucial to my happiness, health, & success—daily, weekly, and monthly. Remember that trips and vacations provide me with new perspective & ideas by removing me from my day-to-day routine & environment, and allow me to share carefree timelessness with Ursula, Sophie, and Halsten.

REFLECTION—I will schedule time for reflection, and gain a broader perspective by contemplating questions like: What am I doing well that I need to acknowledge myself for? What can I do better? What am I not considering that I should be? Etc.
